PMF “Cartoons”

A series of “year books” is under development, each of which contains the vast majority of the questions posed and answers provided by members of the PMFList beginning with 2010. Each book will have hundreds of topics (questions posed) with all of the responses (answers) provided chronologically.

1. Books will be free for Sponsors of the PMFList.
 - $5000 level Sponsors receive all available books
 - $2500 level Sponsors may choose 7 books
 - $1250 level Sponsors may choose 4 books
 - $250 level Sponsors may choose 2 books
 - $100 level Sponsors may choose 1 books
2. A sample book containing the first 3 months from 2010 will appear at the website next week (www.microbiologyforum.org, the specific link will be provided in an announcement next week).
3. All of the topics from all of the books will be placed on a website page as the books are developed.
4. For anyone interested in the books who is not a Sponsor will be able to purchase any or all of the books at prices to be determined.
5. It takes on the order of 1 week to prepare each book, and whenever a book is completed and available, announcements will be made to PMFList subscribers and at LinkedIn.
6. Major revisions to any of the books will be provided to purchasers of the books.

Feel free to email suggestions relevant to the books to:

dporter@microbiologyforum.org

Thank you!
